stanuated cantilated ON ITS FIRST REPRESENTATION.

What the New York Heraid of the 6th October says: Grimaidy Geo. L. Fox has ne living equal. To describe quarter such a bewildering and apparently endless succession of laughable trick and gorgeous scenes would erfectly impossible."

The World of the same date:—"The Olympic is alreadisticated for the elaborate and humorous productions his kind. In none, however, were there such skill and art. kind. In none, however, were there such skill and artis beauty and such drollery of incident as 'Wee Willi was smooth to an exceptional degree, and hence the certainty with which the trumph of "Wee Willie Winkie" can be apoken of already."

The Standard of the same date:—"Last night the audience was one of the largest and most enthusiastic that ever occupied the seats and standing room of the Olympic."

The Evening Express of the same date:—"Last night Mr. George L. Fox appeared in the midst of a bewilderment of new, beautiful and gorgeous scenery, and fairly outdid himself in the drollery of his funniments."
